If you're planning a trip to Hanoi, our comprehensive travel guide will help you plan your perfect itinerary, with detailed information on attractions, accommodations, dining, and more.

Day 1

On your first day in Hanoi, start by visiting the Ho Chi Minh Mausoleum, where you can pay your respects to the father of Vietnamese independence. Then, head to the nearby One Pillar Pagoda, a unique Buddhist temple built on a single pillar. In the afternoon, take a stroll through the Old Quarter, Hanoi's historic center, and browse the many shops and stalls. Be sure to try some of the local street food, such as pho or bun cha.

Day 2

On your second day, visit the Temple of Literature, Vietnam's first university. Then, head to the Museum of Ethnology, which houses a fascinating collection of artifacts from Vietnam's 54 ethnic groups. In the afternoon, take a boat trip to the Perfume Pagoda, a beautiful Buddhist temple complex set in a stunning natural setting.

Day 3

On your third day, explore Hanoi's colonial architecture. Visit the Hanoi Opera House, the Presidential Palace, and the National Museum of Vietnamese History. Then, take a walk around Hoan Kiem Lake, Hanoi's most famous landmark. In the evening, enjoy a traditional Vietnamese water puppet show.

Where to Stay

Hanoi has a wide range of accommodations to choose from, from budget-friendly hostels to luxury hotels. Here are a few of our top picks:

- Hanoi Backpackers Hostel: A great option for budget-minded travelers, this hostel offers clean and comfortable rooms in a convenient location.
- The Little Hanoi Hotel: A charming boutique hotel with a friendly staff and spacious rooms.
- Sofitel Legend Metropole Hanoi: A luxurious hotel with a rich history and stunning views of the city.

Where to Eat

Hanoi is a foodie's paradise, with a wide range of restaurants serving everything from traditional Vietnamese cuisine to international fare. Here are a few of our favorite places to eat:

- Pho Thin: A popular spot for pho, Vietnam's national dish.
- Bun Cha Huong Lien: A family-run restaurant serving delicious bun cha, a grilled pork dish.
- Quan An Ngon: A bustling restaurant serving a variety of Vietnamese dishes.

Getting Around

Hanoi is a relatively easy city to get around. Here are a few tips:

- Taxis: Taxis are plentiful and relatively inexpensive.
- Cyclo: These traditional pedicabs are a fun way to get around the Old Quarter.
- Bus: Hanoi has a good public transportation system, with buses running to all parts of the city.
