The film opens with a group of teenagers exploring an abandoned house. They soon come across a strange noise and decide to investigate. However, one of the teenagers is attacked and killed by a mysterious creature. The remaining teenagers flee the house, but they are soon hunted down and killed one by one.

Meanwhile, a woman named Sara (Sophia Rois) is searching for her missing sister, Kathrin (Nina Petri). Kathrin was last seen at the abandoned house where the teenagers were killed. Sara is determined to find her sister, even if it means putting herself in danger.

Sara's search leads her to a dark and disturbing world. She meets a strange man named Bruno (Hans-Peter Korff) who claims to know what happened to Kathrin. Bruno warns Sara that she is in danger, but she refuses to give up her search.

As Sara gets closer to the truth, she uncovers a dark conspiracy involving the missing teenagers and the mysterious creature that killed them. She also learns that her sister is not who she thought she was.

Schrei Aus Der Stille Ab 13 is a haunting and immersive film that will keep you on the edge of your seat from beginning to end. The film's atmosphere is dark and oppressive, and the scares are genuinely effective. The cast is excellent, with Sophia Rois giving a standout performance as Sara.
