The show's cast of characters is as diverse as the neighborhood they live in. There's Precious, a single mother of three who is trying to make ends meet while raising her children in a tough environment. There's also CJ, a young man who is trying to turn his life around after a stint in prison. And there's Miss Wanda, an elderly woman who is the matriarch of the neighborhood and offers wisdom and guidance to the other residents.

The families on Still Salty face a variety of challenges, including poverty, crime, and drugs. But despite the hardships, they are all determined to make a better life for themselves and their children. They support each other through thick and thin, and they always find a way to laugh even when times are tough.

Still Salty is a raw and honest look at life in the inner city. It's a show that will make you laugh, cry, and think. But most importantly, it's a show that will remind you that even in the most difficult circumstances, there is always hope.
